

Consciousness is fleeting, as we float within this space

Bouncing through the atmosphere, looking for some grace

Countless times we've traveled throughout the universe

Seeding new potentials for our future selves to chase

As visionary Light posts for souls who've lost their way

All the while, searching for new and exciting ways

To experience all the magic this hologram allows

Remembering our purpose, to spread the love around
